

KLOVE allows me to listen to listen to music I want to listen to.

If KLOVE is taken from the community, people would not have the opportunity to call in prayer requests, especially those who do not attend a local church.

KLOVE is in the public's best interest because it tells about things going on in our community that are free to the public and provides information about events that the youth of the community may enjoy.